

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN NURSING

(MSN)

WHY OUR PROGRAM?

The Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) program prepares you to assume leadership roles in a diverse, technologically challenging and global healthcare environment. You can pursue a wide-range of areas of specialization and take the next step in expanding your education and expertise. You will learn from mentors who are experienced nurse educators and practice leaders throughout the country.

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- ▶ All programs are offered as online, mentored learning programs where students actively participate
- ▶ A certificate in the selected area of specialty is awarded along with the MSN degree
- ▶ Up to 12 graduate credits may be transferred and applied to your MSN degree
- ▶ Each MSN specialty has 100 hours in each practicum course (for a total of 200 hours). The practicum courses are done back-to-back at the end of the program.

TAKE THE NEXT STEP IN YOUR NURSING CAREER

Our Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) programs actively shape the nursing profession by preparing nurse leaders who are intellectually curious, clinically competent and technologically prepared to assume positions at the forefront of healthcare transformation. The MSN degree program is for nurses who have a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) and wish to pursue a variety of advanced roles in healthcare administration, informatics and nursing education.

AREAS OF SPECIALTY

You may also specialize in one of the following areas of study:

- ▶ Nurse Educator: Prepares you for teaching roles in healthcare and academic settings. An aging population combined with current nursing shortages means nursing schools have a critical need for qualified faculty members. A Nurse Educator certificate is awarded in addition to the degree upon MSN program completion.
- ▶ Nursing Informatics: Prepares you to function as a nurse informaticist. Lead a multidisciplinary team to ensure quality patient care through the integration of nursing science and data and technical sciences. A Nursing Informatics certificate is awarded in addition to the degree upon MSN program completion.
- ▶ Nursing Administration: Prepares you for the role of nurse administrator in healthcare settings. Provide leadership for the management and supervision of nursing personnel, financial resources and practices in your organization. A Nursing Administration certificate is awarded in addition to the degree upon MSN program completion.
